

ANGLICAN PARISH OF BOX HILL

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost

15 July, 2018

Parish Link

Our Vicar Writes ...

Welcome to our worship today as we gather together as God's people to break open God's word and share at God's Holy table. I extend a special thank you to George and Harry and Alasdair who conducted and preached at services over the last two Sundays as I was on conference in Canterbury. There will be opportunities later to hear my reflections upon my travels and I have come back refreshed and renewed! The Gospel text today from Mark gives the account of the dance that eventually leads to the beheading of John the Baptist. It is interesting to compare this with the dance of David and the people of Israel recounted in the text from 2 Samuel this morning. It is a reminder that what is really important are the motives and desires of our hearts rather than the actions or deeds performed! May we always be mindful of why we do things, seek forgiveness when needed and open our hearts to the transforming Spirit of God. May we keep in our prayers also today those fellow parishioners who will be baptised and confirmed at the Chinese service. My sermon at both the English and Chinese congregations, in light of this celebration, will focus on the reading from Ephesians.

Morning tea

Morning tea is served in the undercroft after the 9.30am service. Please join us.

Sentence

Who shall stand in the Lord's holy place? Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their hands to what is false. Psalm 24.3–4

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God, open our eyes to see your hand at work in the splendour of creation and in the beauty of human life. Help us to cherish the gifts that surround us, to share our blessings with our sisters and brothers, and to experience the joy of life in your presence; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

First Reading: 2 Samuel 6.1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord. When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1.1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark, Chapter 6, beginning at verse 14.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

MOTHERS' UNION

Next meeting: Wednesday 25th July.

We will take part in "the Wave of Prayer". Meet at 1.30pm in the undercroft.

CAN YOU HELP?

Fr Joseph Arou and his wife Aliza will be visiting South Sudan later this year, taking one of their children. This is a meaningful visit for the family with Aliza meeting some family members for the first time. Such a trip is inevitably expensive and Fr Shane and the Parish Council are keen to give some financial assistance. If you think you can assist with a donation, please see the wardens, Rob Kennedy or Garry Plumridge. Cheques can be made payable to the Anglican Parish of Box Hill or cash may be placed in an envelope marked "Travel to South Sudan" and put on the plate. Many thanks.

TELLING THE STORY AFRESH

We need your help! Do you know of anyone who is seeking to know the Christian faith? Are you yourself in need of a refresher in the faith? On 11 August 2018 the parish will launch its evangelism course for 2018 – 'Turning to Christ' – This course of six studies has been produced by the Church of England as part of its Pilgrim study course. It is important for any Christian community to 'tell the story afresh' and this course is one aspect of our church's efforts to do just that! Please make contact with clergy or the parish office if you are interested or you know of someone we can invite. Be on the lookout for more information to come in the weeks ahead!

PROPOSED USE OF ST AIDAN'S CHURCH

As most are aware, we discontinued holding regular Sunday services at St Aidan's in late 2013. In 2014, the Metropolitan Community Church Melbourne (MCCM) used the church for their Sunday evening services until May this year when they relocated to Hawthorn, so the church is currently not in use.

Dream Stitches, who relocated from St Philip's to St Aidan's in mid 2016 to make use of the larger hall has presented a proposal to Parish Council to use the St Aidan's church on Fridays for their children's program.

This program is more than just a child minding exercise, it is now well structured and run by a qualified leader and supported by Anglicare.

In principle, Parish Council wishes to support the proposal with certain conditions:

- The sanctuary area to be screened off for safety and respect of the area.
- The organ at the rear of the church is screened off for safety.
- The font remains in place and screened off for safety and respect of the area.
- The space across in front of the sanctuary is kept clear as a 'corridor' linking the east and west doorways as a safe and clear thoroughfare.
- That the church pews will be sold or stored to ensure safety and provide necessary space. The memorial plaques will be removed from the pews and made into an appropriate Memorial Board, to be placed in the church building.
- That a rubber carpet mat is placed on the floor as the main play area (funded by Dream Stitches).
- That the church will be available to the parish for occasional use, eg Taize services, funerals or special services.
- No permanent structure or fittings are to be installed.
- That the arrangement can be concluded by the Parish should we determine that the building is needed for the Parish's own activities.

Given the history of the St Aidan's church and the special attachment many members of the congregation have to it, Parish Council agreed to advise Parishioners of the proposal and to consider all comments, concerns or questions it receives regarding this proposal. Parish Council next meets on Tuesday 24 July and will meet at St Aidan's. Please raise your comments or concerns with one of the Churchwardens or a member of the Parish Council by Sunday 22 July.
