Our Vicar Writes ...

Welcome to our worship today as we gather together as God's people to break open God's word and share at God's Holy table. I would like to highlight a verse from Mark's Gospel, chapter six, verse 31, in which Jesus tells the disciples, after they have returned from their missionary journey to, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." It is my firm belief that as Christians we need to have a right balance between 'doing' and 'resting.' Too often we hear that we need to do more: give more; evangelise more; serve more, and at times that is correct BUT the Scriptures are clear in our need to find a balance in life otherwise we burn out! We need to learn to attend Jesus – to spend time resting yes, but to also spend time just resting in the presence of the one who brings and gives life!

Sentence

As he went ashore, Jesus saw a great crowd; and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. Mark 6.34

Prayer of the Day

Eternal God, author of our life and end of our pilgrimage: guide us by your word and Spirit amid all perils and temptations, that we may not wander from your way, but may run our course in safety until we come to our eternal rest in you; through the grace of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

First Reading: 2 Samuel 7.1-14a

Now when the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.' Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you.' But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord : Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?' Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

Psalm: 89.21-38 in the APBA prayer book, p. 316

Second Reading: Ephesians 2.11-22

So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called ‘the uncircumcision’ by those who are called ‘the circumcision’— a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands — remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark, Chapter 6, beginning at verse 30.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, ‘Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.’ For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

We will take part in "the Wave of Prayer".

Meet at 1.30pm in the undercroft.

CAN YOU HELP?

Fr Joseph Arou and his wife Aliza will be visiting South Sudan later this year, taking one of their children. This is a meaningful visit for the family with Aliza meeting some family members for the first time. Such a trip is inevitably expensive and Fr Shane and the Parish Council are keen to give some financial assistance. If you think you can assist with a donation, please see the wardens, Rob Kennedy or Garry Plumridge. Cheques can be made payable to the Anglican Parish of Box Hill or cash may be placed in an envelope marked "Travel to South Sudan" and put on the plate. Many thanks.

NAMING COMPETITION

The competition to name the CD of organ music recently recorded at St Peter's by Lewis Plumridge has now closed. Our final entries to the competition are:

"Pipes and Pedals" and "Pipe Organ Voluntaries: Volume 1".

The whole list of suggestions will now be compiled and given to the judges. The decision will be announced shortly.
