Our Vicar Writes...

Welcome to worship today. Welcome to this celebration of 'Transfiguration Sunday' – the remembrance of Jesus being transfigured on the mountain in the presence of disciples Peter, James and John. It is the high point in the season of Epiphany – the glorious manifestation of the true nature of Jesus! It also marks the end of Epiphany as we prepare to celebrate Ash Wednesday this week and begin the season of Lent preparing ourselves for Holy Week and Easter. This journey is prefigured in the Gospel passage today with the writer Luke narrating for us the content of the discussion between Jesus, Moses and Elijah: they were talking about Jesus end in Jerusalem. As our pilgrimage once more turns towards Jerusalem may we take heart in the mountain-top experiences we fleetingly enjoy but remember to follow in the way of our Lord taking up our cross daily. All of us are invited to begin our Lenten observances with worship this coming Wednesday (see inside for details) and take up the study opportunities being offered by the parish (also see inside for details.)

Sentence

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father 's only son, full of grace and truth. John 1.14

Prayer of the Day

O God, glorious and faithful, you reveal the beauty of your face to those who seek you with a sincere heart: strengthen us in faith to embrace the mystery of the cross, and open our hearts to its transforming power, so that, clinging in love to your will for us, we may walk as followers of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

First Reading: Exodus 34.29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterwards all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

Psalm: 99 in the APBA prayer book, p. 325

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 3.12 - 4.2

3 Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. 4 Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practise cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke, Chapter 9, beginning at verse 28

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

BIBLE STUDY

Oppression to Justice - a revelation of God

Our regular Bible study has explored this theme by seeing how the Exodus, the event that formed the nation of Israel, revealed to a mixed underclass of slaves in Egypt God's concern for the oppressed. Through Moses, God led the people out of slavery into an opportunity to be a new kind of society founded on justice. The 10 Commandments show how God required this new society to behave - a set of rules that prohibits violent actions against neighbours. But humans still accepted violence as a valid means for achieving justice, such as 'an eye for an eye'. When Jesus gave the Sermon on the Mount, he extended and deepened the application of the 10 Commandments to reveal that nonviolence of spirit was the law's core purpose - that true and complete justice can only be achieved through nonviolent love: cooperation not competition; reconciliation not revenge; extravagance not equivalence. Jesus revealed God's character of love, who makes the sun shine for the righteous and the unrighteousness.
