The Vicar Writes...

Welcome to our worship today and to week four of our Creation Season. Today we reflect upon water and give thanks to God for it and especially pray for those who need both physical water and spiritual water. And as we give thanks for God's gift of water, we give thanks for all who volunteer their time and energy to fighting fires both in our cities and in our country regions. We particularly pray for the firefighters stationed just around the corner from us here at Box Hill. While the sermon will focus on water we do hear a particularly powerful text from Jeremiah (Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7). It presents us with salient advice for our current times. We know that the Jewish people have just been dragged off to exile in Babylon and the situation looks grim but what does God say, "Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there and do not decrease. Seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare." In other words make the most of it and prepare for the long haul. There will be no quick fixes! We the church in Australia, while not in exile, do find ourselves in challenging circumstances. We must make the most of where we are, and what we have. And do our best for those who are around us. For without their happiness, ours will always fall short of the mark. In their wellbeing is our wellbeing. Like the Jews exiled in Babylon, we are in this faith thing for the long haul. Full redemption will take time. Make the most of it, love one another and we will find joys we did not realise existed within our present circumstances.

Sentence

What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord, I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Psalm 116.12–14

Prayer of the Day

O God, you have made heaven and earth and all that is good: help us to delight in simple things and to rejoice always in the richness of your bounty; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Psalm 66 in APBA, p.286

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2.8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful—for he cannot deny himself. Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke, Chapter 17, beginning at Verse 11

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ
