Our Vicar writes...

Welcome to our worship today. Welcome to Father Harry who is guest preacher at both our 8am and 9.30am services. To whom do you belong? Jesus offers us the chance to become family – not the fraught, dysfunctional version of family that many of us are familiar with, but the family that loves as God loves. This is the family in which each person gives of herself or himself with abandon and never loses out, because each other member is giving in the same way – without blood shared or further bloodshed. The Gospel passage from John gets that across this Sunday, by saying that absolutely anyone can be born from above, from the Spirit (interestingly enough, the expression "born again" doesn't appear here!), becoming sister and brother to the one who has been "lifted up," and now occupies the highest place. The blood that Jesus shed plays a very important role in this gospel, though not in the gruesome way described by some, but because it was the last blood that would ever need to be shed for us to become one human family, children of one God, loving one another as our elder brother Jesus loved and loves us. That's why in Paul's thought, to insist on circumcision, is to deny the Good News of the Cross. To all division, to all denial of our connection to and obligation to care for one another, to all striving to get in God's good grace or to keep others out, Jesus says as he says of all bloodshed: IT IS FINISHED. All that is needed for new life, new hope, a new world, has been accomplished, for God so loved the world that God gave us Jesus, sent to show us a better way – a way that overcomes all that divides and dehumanises.

Morning tea is served in the Undercroft after the 9.30am service.
Please join us.

Mission Statement

Prayer of the Day

God of mercy, you are full of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in mercy, and always ready to forgive: grant us grace to renounce all evil and to cling to Christ, that in every way we may prove to be your loving children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings

First Reading: Genesis 12.1-4a

Now the Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.' So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

Psalms: 121 in the APBA prayer book, p.360

Second Reading: Romans 4.1-5, 4.13-17

What then are we to say was gained by Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the scripture say? 'Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.' Now to one who works, wages are not reckoned as a gift but as something due. But to one who without works trusts him who justifies the ungodly, such faith is reckoned as righteousness. For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, 'I have made you the father of many nations')—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John, Chapter 3, verses 1-17

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night and said to him, 'Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.' Jesus answered him, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?' Jesus answered, 'Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not be astonished that I said to you, "You must be born from above." The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.' Nicodemus said to him, 'How can these things be?' Jesus answered him, 'Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? 'Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. 'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. 'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

ABM Pew Reflections

Jesus tells Nicodemus he must be 'born' again – a birth of water and the Spirit. Our sins must be washed away and we must be alive with the Spirit's fire. Pray that during Lent you will stop anything sinful and begin to become alive in the Spirit's power. Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Korea, the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe.

If you have anything you would like included in the Parish Link Notices, please let Cecilia know in writing before Thursdays or email anglicans.boxhill@bigpond.com Please keep notices succinct and to the point as space is limited.

LINK INSERTS DURING LENT

During Lent we will have a special hymn and be singing the Trisagion in place of the Gloria on Sundays. We will also be hearing the Commandments in full. There will be inserts in the link for these and it would be much appreciated if you could hand them back with the prayer and hymn books at the end of the service each week.
