

ANGLICAN PARISH OF BOX HILL
Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost
26 September, 2021

Parish Link

The Vicar writes...

Welcome to our online worship today as we gather together as God's people to break open God's word and share at God's Holy table. We welcome Father Alasdair who will be celebrant and preacher today at our 9.30am livestreamed service. Even in these difficult days as we look like enduring another six weeks of lockdown, we continue to give thanks to God for all the blessings we have received and offer ourselves as living sacrifices for the ushering in of God's kingdom. We do so hearing in today's Gospel from Mark the need for us to be salt. It is a timely reminder that size isn't everything! A little salt goes a long way in providing flavour and a small community of faith can do a lot if it takes God's promise to be with them seriously. Let us never be disheartened over the numbers who come to church but be energised that God's Spirit is among us still – calling and propelling us forward – to usher in the kingdom of God! I have in my office the following quote from Margaret Mead which I believe echoes this point: 'Never doubt for a moment the ability of a small group of committed people to change the world – it is the only thing that every has.'

The Sunday service will be live-streamed at 9.30am on Sunday morning.
Please check the parish website for updates.
The church building is closed for the present but prayer and fellowship continue!

Sentence: Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can it be seasoned? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another. Mark 9.50

Prayer of the Day

O God, your Son has taught us that those who give a cup of water in his name will not lose their reward: open our eyes to see those who are in need, and teach us to set no store by riches and earthly rewards, so that, in surrendering ourselves to serve you in your children, we may labour for the treasure that endures; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

First Reading: Esther 7.1-6, 7.9-10; 9.20-22

¹ So the king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther. ² On the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, 'What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled.' ³ Then Queen Esther answered, 'If I have won your favour, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me—that is my petition—and the lives of my people—that is my request. ⁴ For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; but no enemy can compensate for this damage to the king.' ⁵ Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, 'Who is he, and where is he, who has presumed to do this?' ⁶ Esther said, 'A foe and enemy, this wicked Haman!' Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen. ⁹ Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, said, 'Look, the very gallows that Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, stands at Haman's house, fifty cubits high.' And the king said, 'Hang him on that.' ¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated. ²⁰ Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, ²¹ enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same month, year by year, ²² as the days on which the Jews gained relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

Psalm: 124

- ¹ If the Lord had not been on our side, now may Israel say:
if the Lord had not been on our side, when our enemies rose against us,
- ² Then they would have swallowed us alive:
when their anger was kindled against us.
- ³ Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, and the torrent gone over us:
the raging waters would have gone clean over us.

⁴ But praised be the Lord:

who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

⁵ We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler:

the snare is broken, and we have gone free.

⁶ Our help is in the name of the Lord:

who has made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: James 5.12-20

¹² Above all, my beloved, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your 'Yes' be yes and your 'No' be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation. ¹³ Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. ¹⁴ Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven.

¹⁶ Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. ¹⁷ Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸ Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. ¹⁹ My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, ²⁰ you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark, Chapter 9, starting at verse 38

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

³⁸ John said to him, 'Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.' ³⁹ But Jesus said, 'Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ Whoever is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. ⁴² 'If any of you put a stumbling-block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.

⁴³ If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. ⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. ⁴⁷ And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, ⁴⁸ where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. ⁴⁹ 'For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰ Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.'

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Prayer of the Week

ABM Pew Reflections

Whether suffering or celebrating, James tells us that we should pray. Of course it's very easy to pray when things suddenly become tough – let's face it we all do that. But since Jesus calls us his friends, should we be the sort of friend who only makes contact when s/he wants a favour? Really, that's being a pretty poor friend. Much better to thank God for all the benefits we are shown and the grace we are freely given. Lord, help me always to remember with gratitude the kindness you show me day by day. Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia
