Second Sunday in Lent

Parish Link

The Vicar writes...

Welcome to our online and in-person worship today! LENT is a season set aside for us to prepare for the joys of Easter and living the Christian life. People often ask me what one can do to improve as a Christian. Here are four actions we can consider and do in this LENT: 1) Confess your sins and amend your life! 2) Open yourselves to being fed (nurtured) by God, in reading the scriptures and praying and attending to your personal relationship with God. 3) Stand firm in the faith, in the love and call of God to be all that you can be as 'Citizens of Heaven.' 4) Allow God to show you the next step along the path, and be not afraid because we know the promise and power of God to change and comfort us. As additional food for thought I give the following poem I have shared before by Wendell Berry entitled: Manifesto: The Mad Farmer Liberation Front. The last line is of particular note.

Love the quick profit, the annual raise, vacation with pay. Want more of everything ready-made. Be afraid to know your neighbours and to die. And you will have a window in your head. Not even your future will be a mystery anymore. Your mind will be punched in a card and shut away in a little drawer. When they want you to buy something they will call you. When they want you to die for profit they will let you know. So, friends, every day do something that won't compute. Love the Lord.

Love the world. Work for nothing. Take all that you have and be poor. Love someone who does not deserve it. Denounce the government and embrace the flag. Hope to live in that free republic for which it stands. Give your approval to all you cannot understand. Praise ignorance, for what man has not encountered he has not destroyed.

Ask the questions that have no answers. Invest in the millennium. Plant sequoias. Say that your main crop is the forest that you did not plant, that you will not live to harvest. Say that the leaves are harvested when they have rotted into the mould. Call that profit. Prophecy such returns. Put your faith in the two inches of humus that will build under the trees every thousand years. Listen to carrion — put your ear close, and hear the faint chattering of the songs that are to come. Expect the end of the world. Laugh. Laughter is immeasurable. As soon as the generals and the politicians can predict the motions of your mind, lose it. Leave it as a sign to mark the false trail, the way you didn't go. Be like the fox who makes more tracks than necessary, some in the wrong direction.

Practice resurrection.

Sentence: Our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3.20

Prayer of the Day

God of our ancestors, whose chosen servant Abraham was given faith to obey your call and go out into the unknown: endow your Church with such faith that we may follow you with courage; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Reading: 15.1-12, 15.17-18

<sup>1</sup> After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' <sup>2</sup> But Abram said, 'O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' <sup>3</sup> And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' <sup>4</sup> But the word of the Lord came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' <sup>5</sup> He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' <sup>6</sup> And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness. <sup>7</sup> Then he said to him, 'I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.' <sup>8</sup> But he said, 'O Lord God, how am I to know that I shall possess it?' <sup>9</sup> He said to him, 'Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.' <sup>10</sup> He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. <sup>11</sup> And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away. <sup>12</sup> As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. <sup>17</sup> When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire-pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>18</sup> On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates'

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

Psalm: 27

<sup>1</sup> The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I fear?:

the Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

<sup>2</sup> When the wicked, even my enemies and my foes, come upon me to devour me:

they shall stumble and fall.

<sup>3</sup> If an army encamp against me, my heart shall not be afraid:

and if war should rise against me, yet will I trust.

<sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked from the Lord, which I will require:

that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, <sup>5</sup> To see the fair beauty of the Lord: and to seek his will in his temple.

<sup>6</sup> For he will hide me under his shelter in the day of trouble:

and conceal me in the shadow of his tent, and set me high upon a rock.

<sup>7</sup> And now he will lift up my head: above my enemies round about me.

<sup>8</sup> And I will offer sacrifices in his sanctuary with exultation:

I will sing, I will sing praises to the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> O Lord, hear my voice when I cry: have mercy upon me and answer me.

<sup>10</sup> My heart has said of you, 'Seek his face': your face, Lord, I will seek.

<sup>11</sup> Do not hide your face from me:

or thrust your servant aside in displeasure;

<sup>12</sup> For you have been my helper:

do not cast me away or forsake me, O God of my salvation.

<sup>13</sup> Though my father and my mother forsake me: the Lord will take me up.

<sup>14</sup> Teach me your way, O Lord:

and lead me in an even path, for they lie in wait for me.

<sup>15</sup> Do not give me over to the will of my enemies:

for false witnesses have risen against me,
and those who breathe out violence.

<sup>16</sup> But I believe that I shall surely see the goodness of the Lord:

in the land of the living.

<sup>17</sup> O wait for the Lord; stand firm and he will strengthen your heart:

and wait, I say, for the Lord.

Second Reading: Philippians 3.17-4.1

<sup>17</sup> Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. <sup>18</sup> For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. <sup>19</sup> Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. <sup>20</sup> But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>21</sup> He will transform the body of our humiliation so that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. <sup>1</sup> Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Luke, Chapter 13, verses 31-35

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>31</sup> At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, 'Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.' <sup>32</sup> He said to them, 'Go and tell that fox for me, "Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. <sup>33</sup> Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed away from Jerusalem." <sup>34</sup> Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! <sup>35</sup> See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord."'

For the Gospel of our Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

ABM Pew Reflections

Today's gospel reading sees some Pharisees come to warn Jesus that Herod Antipas is out to kill him and they warn him away from Jerusalem. Jesus is not at all deterred by their caution, and tells the Pharisees to tell 'that fox' Herod about how he is casting out demons and healing the sick for the next three days. Despite knowing that being in Jerusalem will result in his death, Jesus remains utterly committed to playing his part in God's mission. Lord, like you may I play my part in working for God's kingdom, never shying away from it even when difficulties and worries abound. Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea
